Fact Sheet

History

Headquartered in Irving, Texas, U.S. Oral Surgery Management (USOSM) is a management services organization that exclusively serves premier oral and maxillofacial surgeons. USOSM was established in November 2017 as the first company of its kind, and USOSM continues its leadership legacy today with one of the largest networks of premier oral and maxillofacial surgeons, nationwide.

USOSM provides exceptional operational, financial and administrative support services to fuel clinical excellence, innovation and wealth-creation. When an oral surgeon partners with USOSM, the company handles the day-to-day operational details, but the surgeon maintains full clinical autonomy. In addition, under its unique business model, USOSM surgeon partners receive a significant financial stake in the company.

USOSM is backed by the private equity firm Oak Hill Capital, a longstanding private equity firm focused on the North America middle-market.

Vision

To be the oral surgery management company most admired for its people, partnership model and performance.

Mission

We partner with premier oral and maxillofacial surgeons to help them enhance their clinical mission and their success both today and tomorrow.

Ideal Partners

Oral surgeons who partner with USOSM are experienced, established surgeons who want to share best practices with fellow partners for the benefit of all.
