USOSM News & Updates

Thanks to you, our valued team members, for your engagement and enthusiasm with the e-newsletter and employee resource website. The purpose is to provide a platform that lends to inspiring and cultivating relationships and connection, especially during this remote environment in which we are living.

Our fourth edition of the e-newsletter presents new online training content and links to lots of fun and useful tips for your personal and professional lives. Let's continue using our gifting, talents and time toward investing into the lives of those in which we come in contact. You never know how a simple, yet heartfelt, word of encouragement can change someone's life!

USOSM Employee Resource Website

We hope you have explored the newly updated Employee Resource website. If you have any requests for information or have feedback regarding the site, let us know:

Training, Development & Continuing Education

Whether you are taking care of family or patients, you can't do it well without first taking care of yourself. Self care is essential to dealing with the stress that our "new normal" may bring. Our NEWEST video from the Total Patient Service Institute is linked below along with a very important PPE Review from Dr. Kuhmichel and Dr. Bradshaw at Peachtree Dunwoody Oral and Facial Surgery. Please take a few minutes, and check them out.

Community & Outreach

As Millard Fuller said, "For a community to be whole and healthy, it must be based on people's love and concern for each other." We have seen some amazing acts of kindness and have enjoyed seeing the things that matter to our USOSM community of practices and team members. Here are some NEW Community & Outreach links we hope you enjoy:
